Description

These refined earrings are made of baroque pearls and 18-carat rose gold, offering a silhouette that is both modern and timeless. The earrings feature a fine, elegant setting, with a minimalist design that highlights the pearl. The natural baroque pearls are unique, each with its own curves and pearlescent shine. The attachment is made of rose gold, adding a touch of softness and sophistication. The pearls are suspended, creating a fluid movement. The size is perfect for a refined look and natural elegance, suitable for both everyday wear or special occasions. They are ideal for those seeking jewelry that combines discreet luxury with a bohemian charm.
