Description

Large still life from the 1940s/1950s: a large white platter filled with red and yellow apples. This platter rests on a crumpled white tablecloth. Beside it, on the table, is a large piece of glazed pottery, green and beige, and a pot with a pot belly with a gray/blue pattern. In the background, we see the front of an antique chest of drawers. Very bright colors, very strong contrasts, a lot of presence and light in this large, very decorative panel. French school, mid-20th century. Very good condition.
