PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Maison Jansen (attr) 'ammonite' Lamp 102cm, Gilded Brass And Black Lacquered Wood, Hollywood R

3 250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Stone

Width : 42

Height : 102

Depth : 27

Description

Rare and imposing Hollywood Regency style lamp, attributed to Maison Jansen, dating from the 1970s.This light fixture highlights an ammonite fossil Ammonoidea - Cleoniceras (Albian Cretaceous), likely from Madagascar.The structure is made of black lacquered wood, with rectangular section gilt brass uprights, supporting an adjustable shade made of original velvet paper, with a gilt interior.The whole is in good general condition, although some signs of wear are visible on the edges of the shade in the usual contact points (see photo).Standard screw bulb (E27), compatible with E27 LED bulbs, and has a switch integrated into the cable.The floor lamp is fully functional and ready to use.Overall dimensions:Height: 102 cm.Width: 42 cm.Depth: 27 cm.Maison Jansen in Paris:Maison Jansen is

Dealer

Galerie Pignolet

20th century objects and furniture

Mobile : 0032 498 295 815

53 Chaussée de Waterloo

Namur 5000

an interior design house located in Paris. Founded in 1880 by Dutchman Jean-Henri Jansen, Maison Jansen is considered the first global design firm to brand its name, offering its services in Europe, Latin America, North America, and the Middle East.In the early 1940s, Maison Jansen established its own studios on 17,000 m² on Rue Saint Sabin in Paris. Throughout its history, the firm employed the traditional European style of design but also followed European trends in this field, notably the Vienna Secession, Modernism and Art Deco, which were developed by the firm between 1920 and 1950.Under Boudin's direction, Maison Jansen worked for the royal families of Belgium, Iran and Serbia but also for the White House under the administration of John F. Kennedy...Similar works:Willy Rizzo (Pierre Cardin model), Maison Charles, Romeo Rega (Mario Sabot - Cidue edition), Georges Mathias - MAHO, Lova création, Jean-Claude Mahey, Gabriella Crespi...Packaging and delivery costs to be expected:Collection: Free.For Belgium: EUR80.For France: EUR100.For Europe: EUR200.For the rest of the world: EUR650.