Description

Charming oil on panel painting featuring on the front an evocative Alpine landscape. At the center, a mountain cottage is surrounded by lush pastures, pine trees, and majestic mountains, with small human figures and cattle adding life to the scene. The dramatic clouds and vivid blue sky contribute to the atmospheric depth of the composition.

The reverse side of the panel also holds a painting: a dense woodland with a path, executed with refined tonal variations and a soft interplay of light and shadow.

This rare double-sided work showcases the painter's technical skill, likely active in the late 19th or early 20th century, and possibly linked to
