Description

This exquisite coffee table is a true testament to the elegant and innovative spirit of 20th century Italian design, particularly the 1970s. Its striking square shape is complemented by elegant cylindrical chrome metal legs that provide both stability and a touch of sophistication. The smoked glass top adds a layer of depth and charm, making it a visually appealing piece that will fit perfectly into a modern living space. While reminiscent of the work of renowned designer Marco Zanuso for Zanotta, this coffee table is unique, with no labels or trademarks to define it. Its minimalist aesthetic and quality craftsmanship reflect the era's commitment to functional beauty, making it a versatile addition to any contemporary home. Presented in mint condition, this coffee table is ready to enhance your living
