Description

Charming landscape of Lyon or Beaujolais. We see several white buildings covered in tiles, nestled among the trees. In front, a pond stretches out and on the right in the foreground, a flock of ducks seems ready to jump into it. The work is signed lower left. It is in very good condition. On the back, there are 2 small restorations, invisible on the front. It is offered in a gilded and carved wooden frame from the 1930s. It is in good general condition, there are some retouches of gilding and a small lack of material, almost invisible, on one of the sides. The artist Clovis Frédéric Léopold Terraire was born in Marseille in 1858 but spent most of his life in Lyon. He exhibited at the Salon de Lyon as well as the Salon des Artistes Français. He received the Rosa-Bonheur Prize in 1927. Clovis Terraire
