Description

Vienna Bronze circa 1900 in brightly colored bronze, made in Vienna, Austria, from 1850 onwards are bronzes of rare quality. Often small in size, Vienna bronzes can vary from a few millimeters to almost a meter. Attractive objects, these sculptures, of great finesse, surprise by their liveliness and their sometimes very amusing side. These 19th century bronze sculptures are well known for their high technical quality as well as for the great attention paid to detail, movement and expression; the talent of Austrian sculptors then reached an international level. These bronzes are famous for their naturalistic representation and are distinguished by a wide range of extremely varied subjects: human figures (representations of professions, oriental inspirations
