Description

Marcel Charles Gaichet (1943-2000). His works have been sold at public auction 14 times, mostly in the DrawingWatercolor category.

Marcel-Charles Gaichet was one of those rare princes, surveyors of the imagination who enchant life naturally, and lose it by surprise on the road to nowhere. Here a "Young Man with a Bird", pencil and watercolor, where, as always in the work of Marcel-Charles Gaichet, innate grace and harmony hum the same melody of melancholic happiness. Solitary travelers, indecisive angels, gaunt gypsies, looks of sad children, of lost pierrots, birds and balloons make heard in an aside the endless song of the true absent life. Dim. with baguette 74 x 62 cm, 46 x 60 cm on view Good condition
