

Indian Saber Called "kharga" - North India, 19th Century

690 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Indian saber called "kharga" - North India, 19th century
Kharga is the name used in India. In Nepal, the term kora is used. Based on the style of the handle and the silver-damascened floral decoration, this saber is from North India. Beautiful and strong single-edged blade that flares sharply towards the tip. Length 63.5cm
Blade length 50.5cm Weight 1170gr

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu
Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120