Description

Liqueur cellar in gilded bronze chiseled with foliage, musical instruments, oves, canals and vine branches. This cellar in the shape of a covered pagoda is darkened with mirrors. It accommodates three crystal carafes gilded with gold with their stoppers and fifteen small gilded faceted goblets for liqueurs (a different glass of the same shape but without gilding). A mechanism allows the roof of the pagoda to be articulated around an axis to allow the release of the bottles which, otherwise, cannot be extracted from the cellar. Napoleon III period rococo style. DIMENSIONS: 45cm wide, 28cm deep and 36cm high. Delivery on estimate.
