Description

French school of the 20th century. Double-sided painting which represents on one side a still life: a large vase placed on a wooden pedestal table, on its right a potted plant with dark pink flowers (cyclamens). On the other side of the panel the portrait of a young boy wearing a blue sweater. The colors are soft, there is a slight relief. The painting has a lot of charm. The painting is signed on the still life side S. Bigot and dated 1936. Oil on wood panel. Some traces of time but good condition. The panel measures 41.5 × 33 cm.
