Description

The Up&Up is crafted from finely crafted burr walnut. The lid lifts up and contains an interior space designed for pens and other writing utensils. Below is a sloped-front writing desk inlaid with a gold-tone, embossed green leather insert. The knee area below the desk is finely inlaid with a stylized floral satinwood inlay, flanked by a pair of carved consoles. The right side of the Davenport features a set of four drawers, concealed by a door. The desk rests on four compressed legs, each fitted with a caster. A unique and historic piece that will add character to your workspace or library.
