Description

Charming pastel, depicting a little boy and a little girl holding a jar with a broken side. They are standing at the edge of a window with a rounded top. A wild plant climbs along the doorframe on the left. The two children are smiling, not at all anxious about their mischief. An impression of light and carefree gaiety. France? 19th century or even 18th century. 161-6 paper mounted on an old canvas.
