Description

Expressions and phrases explained around the word foot Ah if only the Oscar at the back of the class knew what we were going to do with his foot... To have sea legs, to take one's foot, to draw like a foot, to have a good eye, a crane's foot, a black foot, at the last minute, with both feet, to the letter, foot to the floor, to tear one's foot apart, I'll stop there are dozens of others. And to think that we have the same ones... Teaching object made of bone, from the end of the 19th century... the rest of Oscar has disappeared.
