Description

Crystal fragrance diffuser bottle. Pear-shaped, composed of facets (9), the neck is in the shape of a flower corolla with a brass diffuser. The crystal is enhanced with fine gold with a rich varian decoration on each side. It is in very good general condition, without chips and the gilding is not damaged. There remains a fragment of paper label glued under the base corresponding to the labels used by the Baccarat crystal factory. It comes from the Lubin perfumery, one of the most famous, created in the 18th century and very appreciated by the court
