Description

Set of three Bohemian crystal glasses, late 18th century - 19th century
A tumbler glass engraved with a beautiful coat of arms in which appear the initials DB. The coat of arms is surrounded by two beautiful palms and knots. A serrated frieze crowns the upper edge of the glass (dated late 18th - very early 19th century)
A glass cut with multiple facets and different techniques; a small painted frieze of flowers brings a subtlety of colors. The lip of the glass is gilded. Superb tumbler glass (19th century)
A two-tone red tumbler glass decorated with three medallions representing bouquets of flowers and on one of the medallions two hands clasping each other extended by the painted word "Andenken" (souvenir) (19th century)
These three tumblers come from a private collection of a Hungarian
