Description

Pair of Torch Holders - Delarue Picard Paris 1885
- Polychrome Stucco Nubian, Egyptian Style -
Figurative Lighting LampPair of torch holders in naturalistically painted stucco, depicting Moorish slaves dressed in draped tunics and holding a raised torch. Frosted glass flame-shaped lampshades. Set is in perfect condition, which is very rare for this type of item. The only minor flaw to note is a small chip on the lower drapery; this small defect has been recolored and is only visible when viewed from underneath (see final photos). Fully functional. Rewired in the 90's century with grounded plugs.
