

Openwork All-steel Dagger Known As Patag - Bhutan Or Tibet, 19th 1st Half 20th Century

490 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

All-steel openwork dagger called patag - Bhutan or Tibet, 19th 1st half 20th century Wooden handle covered with steel wire and chiseled and openwork steel pommel. Scabbard in chiseled and openwork steel with representation of a dragon. Single-edged blade engraved with auspicious symbols on one side and a dragon on the other. Length 35.5cm Length without scabbard 35cm Blade length 24cm Total weight 600gr Weight without scabbard 340gr

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120