

The Stereo-classifier Taxiphone: World War Of 1914-1918

1 600 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Mahogany

Length : 35 cm

Width : 35 cm

Height : 50 cm

Description

"Automatic distributor patented SGDГ - Paris, RICHARD Frères, patented manufacturers, n° 8385", c. 1908, Mahogany distributor box, metal handles. With 6 baskets of 25 stereoscopic views and 13 loose views offering 163 glass plate photographs of the Great War with various views of the battlefields (Verdun in particular): corpses, nurses, ambulance drivers, trenches, etc. One basket concerns Morocco. Each view is captioned and numbered in the negative. On the sides of the device, riveted plates indicate its operation. A "secret" push button placed under the top cover allows closing and opening. Signature of the manufacturers and number inside. Very good condition. With a key for storage housed under the device.

Dealer

Librairie Alain Brioux

Cabinet of curiosities Sciences & Medecine

Tel : 0142602198

Fax : alain.brioux@gmail.com

48 rue Jacob

Paris 75006