Description

Amazing contemporary painting, in blueish-turquoise-red-black, harmonic composition. Signed by a great "B" in the right corner. Large format, black handworked frame, covered with plexiglass. Jens Birkemose is a contemporary danish painter, born 28 June 1943. Originally a student of piano, music theory and composition Birkemose went on to study at the Royal Danish Academy of Art in Copenhagen and the Académie des Beaux-Arts in Paris. Birkemose's works are inspired by the New York School of painting and are famous for their hidden shapes, some of which take a lot of effort to discover. Examples of these shapes include demon-like creatures, mermaids, birds and cats. 1991 Birkemose is the winner of the Eckersberg Medal and is represented at several of Denmark's
