Description

Beautiful carved stained beechwood side table, inspired by the creations of Gabriel Viardot. Composed of four levels of shelves, it is topped with an embedded onyx plaque. The top has curved and eventful edges. Each level is decorated with decorative openwork wooden elements on the sides. The legs of the side table are curved, adding to its elegant and refined look. Finally, this small piece of furniture is notable for its superb gilded bronze dragon, wrapping the top of one leg. This piece of furniture testifies to the interest in Asian art that was very fashionable during the Belle Époque.
