Description

19th-century copy after Raphael's Sistine Madonna, depicting the Virgin holding the Christ Child, accompanied by an angel on the right. The work is executed in oil on panel and shows a beautiful patina shaped by time. The Virgin's face, full of tenderness, echoes the iconic composition of the Renaissance master. The piece is set in a remarkable carved giltwood frame, typical of the 19th century, adorned with cherub masks in the corners and raised foliage along the borders. The aged gilding, worn in places, lends the ensemble an authentic charm while enhancing the warm tones of the religious scene.
