Description

Oil on canvas depicting a bourgeois living room from the end of the 19th century. The scene shows an upholstered armchair placed near a lit fireplace. A pink silk cushion and an open blue book rest on the armchair, suggesting the discreet presence of an occupant. Above the fireplace, a clock framed by two candelabras and a few decorative objects complete the composition. Two paintings and a few books on a table enrich the atmosphere. The whole exudes the comfort and taste of a classic interior, the light is soft, the fire brings a warm touch and the scene seems frozen in a moment of calm and bourgeois tranquility. Very good condition Oak frame. Frame 60x70 cm
