Description

Antonella Iovinella Naples/Rome "Abstract Ceramics" Clay, unique piece, 25 x 15 x 12 cm
Antonella Iovinella was born in Naples where she studied and trained first as a painter and then as a sculptor. He lived on the French Riviera and currently resides in Rome. His works are found among Italian and French collectors. The painting (oil on canvas) develops along a meticulous research of forms and lights. The sculpture (clay variously coated) orchestrates processes anthropomorphic forms of abstraction of emptiness and fullness. Antonella Iovinella's poetic and technical horizon is to develop an hour-by-hour royalty of culture derived from surrealist metaphysics.
