

Late 18th Century Biscuit, Allegory Of Fidelity

850 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Biscuit

Description

Porcelain biscuit subject, allegory of fidelity, on a circular red marble base finished with a square white marble base. The young woman wearing a pleated dress, one breast exposed. She holds a bouquet of flowers in her right hand, in her left hand a burning heart placed on her chest. At her feet, a dog looking at her. Louis XVI period, late 18th century. Height with base 30 cm.

Well-known subject, notably treated by the Manufacture de royale de Sèvres.

Dealer

Antiquités Francois frères

General dealer,

Tel : 06 62 11 26 49

18 place de la République

Chalon-sur-saône 71100