

17th Century Open Tobacco Rasp Representing Minerva With Her Spear

4 300 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ivory

Height : 15,7 cm

Description

An open ivory tobacco rasp representing Minerva holding her spear in her right hand and her shield in her left. Great quality of carving. The grater is missing.

Condition: the ivory has moved in the lower part on both sides.

Dimension: height of 15,7 cm.

France (Dieppe probably) made in the second half of the XVIIth century.

Dealer

Galerie DELALANDE

Marine & Sciences, Tobacco & Opium objects, Canes, Curiosa

Tel : 00 33 1 42 60 19 35

Mobile : 00 33 6 60 90 21 59

35 rue de Lille

Paris 75007