Description

Folding wrought iron daybed mounted on wheels. The corners are foldable which allows it to be adapted as a rest bench or indoor or garden sofa. The patina is rusty and can be varnished to preserve this patina or painted to match. The head and foot of the bed are rounded and made up of a large folded and stapled motif (as on 18th century ironwork) in the shape of a heart. The whole 90/190cm is in good condition.
