

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Edvard Rosenberg - Winter Twilight Landscape

1 120 EUR

Signature : Edvard Rosenberg (1858-1934)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 62 cm.

Height : 46 cm.

Description

This winter twilight landscape by Edvard Rosenberg showcases his signature ability to capture the essence of Swedish nature. A majestic tree anchors the composition, its silhouette outlined against the glowing sunset sky over a serene lake. The snowy ground and rustic wooden fence evoke a peaceful yet melancholic mood, typical of Rosenberg's work as one of the foremost mood painters of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Dated in 1915, this charming painting has a gilded wooden frame, in very good condition, with minor signs of wear. Edvard Axel Johan Rosenberg (1858-1934) was a master of Swedish landscape painting, particularly scenes from Lake Mälaren and winter motifs. Born in Stockholm, he graduated from the Royal Academy of Fine Arts, where he won the Royal

Dealer

Winckelmann Gallery

Fine Art

Ottawa K2S 1T6

Medal for his exceptional talent. His career included a formative period in Paris, where he gained international recognition, including an honorable mention at the Paris Salon, and later in the Carolles painting colony in Normandy. Rosenberg's works are celebrated for their atmospheric quality, which reflects the beauty and tranquility of the Swedish countryside. Rosenberg's paintings are housed in prominent collections, including the National Museum in Stockholm and the Norrköping Art Museum. Artist: Edvard Rosenberg (1858-1934). Signed and dated in the lower left corner. Medium: Oil on canvas. Condition: Very good condition. Dimensions: 46 x 62 cm. / 18 x 24 1/2 in. Frame: 66 x 82 cm. / 26 x 32 1/4 in. Very good condition.