debuted at the Salon of 1861 and continued to take an active role at the Salon des Artistes Français, an artistic group of which he was a member. He appeared at the Salon of 1910 with Saint John and The Message, a marble statuette. His favorite subjects, allegories, putti, cupid, are treated with realism and grace. Auguste is the only one of his siblings not to have received an official award. He is buried in the communal cemetery of Les Lilas. Auguste Moreau produced mainly artistic bronzes. Several of his works are kept at the Museum of Fine Arts in Troyes and the Museum of Fine Arts in Bordeaux.
