Description

Tripod Painted Sheet Metal Coffee Pot or Samovar. Painted sheet metal samovar from the 19th century, probably Louis Philippe. The base is domed and rests on three curved feet. The decoration is gold and silver on a black background and represents a spring bouquet. This coffee pot, teapot or samovar is complete, it just lacks the small stove, but it has kept its openwork brass base. Painting in good condition despite some scratches visible in the photos. Dimensions: 43 cm high. We deliver and ship all over the world, please contact us for a precise quote.
