Description

Superb, very finely carved seal.The tip of the seal is shaped like a multi-lobed seed. The shaft is formed by a handshake, a symbol of loyalty and commitment. Perhaps there is also a Masonic symbol with the fingers extending down to the wrists.The silver matrix is richly decorated with scrolls. It is engraved with the number RV (?).I could not find a hallmark attesting to the title on the silver part; there is a trace that could be a boar's head. However, there is a poorly struck diamond-shaped silversmith's mark guaranteeing the metal.Superb, very finely engraved seal with a handshake, perhaps indicating Masonic affiliation, enhanced by this silver matrix.7.8 cm high11.1 gramsVery good condition.Hand-delivered in Paris or shipped by insured Colissimo.
