Description

Lovely aquatints in delicate tones and finely represented by 19th century Ladies of Quality from the Louis Philippe period, they are both coquettish and complement each other with their pretty posture and their beautiful headdresses. Presented in sober oval molded frames with pale blue margins, these two coquettes from the first half of the 19th century have everything to seduce, the finesse of their features and their elegance... In very good condition, a work full of delicacy, in their original frame, these two engravings have a real decorative asset and are in very good condition of freshness
