Description

Amusing scene of monkey business in the fashion of the 19th century. Anthropomorphic painting representing a monkey business scene: three monkeys seated at a table in an inn in clothes inspired by the Flemish Renaissance and in a setting reminiscent of the paintings of Teniers are busy chatting. The details are really nicely done: the glasses typical of the north, as well as the tankard, the clothes and the furniture, the very human attitude in the representation of the three monkeys etc ... signed Carpentero lower right. It has a brass plaque with dates that do not match. Wooden frame and stucco regilded with bronze, some small accidents on the frame. An amusing monkey business from the second half of the 19th century. Dimensions: 33 cm long and 49 cm long with the frame 23 cm high and 40 cm high with
