Vase From The Bombay School Of Art, 19th Century

450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Height : 25cm

Description

This magnificent and rare vase comes from the Sir Jamsetjee Jeejeebhoy School of Art, also known as the Bombay School of Art. The Art School was created in the mid-19th century to promote indigenous arts, which were considered extinct; this deep green vase with its striking shape bears a Hindi signature on the base.

Dealer

Windhorseantiques
Antiques & Collectables
Tel : 0466020489
Mobile : 0763036907

UZES
Sainte-Anastasie 30190