

Solid Silver Serving Spoon, Early 19th Century.

290 EUR

Signature : Clerin Aimee Catherine

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 35cm

Description

Beautiful serving shovel (fish, cut meat, dessert, etc.) with pierced and engraved decoration. Very good condition, no weaknesses or restorations. Original turned and blackened wooden handle. Hallmarked with the 1st rooster for the period 1798 / 1809. Presence of the hallmark of the goldsmiths' association for 1794 / 97. Master goldsmith's hallmark clearly legible. Total weight: 193 g. Length: 35 cm

Dealer

Christophe Barbe Antiquités

Antiquités Curiosités Bijoux

Mobile : 06 22 54 65 48

10 Passage Colas

Caen 14000