Description

Louis XV-style middle table carved with flowers, foliage and a large shell on the belt. It features a large compartmentalized side drawer assembled with dovetail joints. This handsome piece of furniture rests elegantly on four curved, sculpted legs ending in a bronze sabot. The original patina, showing the wear of time, gives it a certain charm. The original double-groove molded walnut top contrasts perfectly with the cream-colored patina. The marriage of the two tones reveals an easy integration into any interior that's sure to be sublime! Dimensions : W.134 x D.79 x H.70 cm / Height under belt: 57 cm 19th century period In good condition.
