caricaturist André Caza, born André Cazaumayou, (1911-2003). He is the grandfather of the comic strip artist and science fiction illustrator Caza. Jean Rigaud (1912-1999) painter of the Navy. He married Françoise, a sister of André Caza. He was a founding member of the Society of Friends of Cathedrals in 1912 with Beltrand, Jammes, Paul Jamot, Charles Tournemire, Maurice Denis, George Desvallières, Louis Rouart. The association aims to "make known Christian art in whatever form it manifests itself: philosophy, music, architecture, sculpture, painting" (visit, musical audition, conference). He trained in his studio on Boulevard Pereire: Maurice Martin (painter) and Paul Anderbouhr. Among his friends and acquaintances are the painters Jacques-Émile Blanche, Maurice Denis, Willem van Hasselt, Hubert-Denis Etcheverry, William Didier-Pouget, Vergeaud, Henri-Achille Zo, Jacques Beltrand, René Ménard, Maurice Chabas and Paul Chabas, the musicians Charles Tournemire (godfather of his son Jean), Ermend Bonnal, Lucien Capet, and the poets Francis Eon and Francis Jammes. Pierre-Gaston Rigaud is buried in Bordeaux.
