Description

- Fragment of tapestry, weaving from a Brussels workshop around the middle of the 16th century. Amongst lush vegetation, we can see the leg of a man who seems to be a hunter (hunting being a common iconographic theme in tapestry at the time). - This fragment is similar to the production of Brussels workshops from the middle of the 16th century. This is evidenced by the beautiful fineness of the weaving (7 threads/cm) which produces a supple textile, the materials used (wool and silk) and the colors whose freshness suggests the use of colorfast fabrics. - State of conservation: small fragment but in a very good state of conservation - Dimensions: Height: 27 cm, Width: 31.5 cm
