Description

Description: A superb and delicate pastel portrait of a young lady, based on the iconic work by Thomas Gainsborough, Mrs. Richard Brinsley Sheridan. This piece stands out for its masterful execution and the exceptional freshness of its original pigments. Technical Details: Technique: Dry pastel on paper, preserved under its original glass. The pastel technique provides a unique soft grain and luminosity to the skin tones and fabrics. Subject: A tribute to 18th-century British elegance, featuring remarkable work on the ruffled fichu and the airy, powdered hairstyle. Framing: Housed in a period-style Louis XVI gilded wood frame, decorated with a bead-and-reel pattern and a classic cove molding. The gilding features an authentic antique patina. Condition: The pastel is
