Description

Nara is a coffee table designed by Shiro Kuramata for Memphis Milano in 1983. This piece, emblematic of the Memphis movement, is made of a conglomerate of concrete and terrazzo, incorporating shards of colored glass that add a vibrant and dynamic touch. The base, like the tabletop, is composed of concrete and glass, creating a harmonious and bold ensemble. The vibrant colors and geometric shapes characteristic of Memphis design reinforce the unique and modern look of this table. Edition: Memphis Milano.
