Description

Exceptional painting by Modeste Carlier on its original canvas and signed in the middle on the left, with its Louis XV style frame from the late 19th century with rich molding and palmette decoration. Superb bouquet of flowers represented by Modeste CARLIER signed on its original canvas with its beautiful original frame also in Louis XV style in gilded wood decorated with friezes and palmettes. CARLIER is a famous Belgian painter specializing in bouquets of flowers and still lifes as represented here with a striking quality of realism for the time, this work is part of the best period of his production around 1860. Exceptional colors and rendering of the material on this painting particularly well executed by the artist.
