Description

Louis XVI mirror in carved and gilded wood, with small parecloses. From the pediment carved with a covered pot framed with palms, garlands of laurel leaves descend, ending on the sides. In each corner, Greek frets are topped with bouquets of flowers at the top and decorated with branches at the bottom. It rests on pretty feet finely carved with foliage. The period mirror has a very beautiful iridescent and oxidized tin in some parts. Work from the Louis XVI period from the last quarter of the 18th century. Height: 103 cm. Width: 65 cm.
