It is in very good condition, without any cracks or chips. This beautiful and rare smoking kit from the late 19th or early 20th century is composed of a tobacco jar and a match holder, with a scraper that acts as a pyrogen. It is signed with the monogram BB for Bernhard Bloch (1836-1909) and numbered 5567 (mold number). Bernhard (or Bernard) Bloch was one of the greatest Austro-Hungarian ceramists of the 19th century. These tobacco jars and smoking kits are collected and appreciated worldwide for their fine workmanship. I have only found one auction result for this unusual model (last photo). Height: 19.5 cm.
