Description

Magnificent bronze sculpture of a lapwing by the renowned French sculptor Jules Moigniez (1835-1894). This elegant work features a warm brown patina, highlighting the detailed texture of the feathers and the natural landscape of the base. Moigniez was renowned for his remarkable animal sculptures and his keen sense of realism, which is clearly reflected in the dynamic posture and refined finish of this piece. Dating from the 19th century, this work is a classic example of the French animal style.
