Description

Louis XVI style rosewood and amboyna burl wall shelf from the 19th century. Carved and molded wood with gilded details. The three rosewood veneer shelves are of different sizes, which gives the piece a pleasant proportion while offering a larger display area. On the carved pediment we find the initials FC probably of the family who ordered this piece. Furniture in very good condition, fully restored and beautifully made with noble woods. Hanging system at the back of the pediment.
