

Beach Scenes, Charles Roussel, Late 19th Century

1 800 EUR

Signature : Charles Roussel

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting on cardboard

Width : 18

Height : 26,5

Description

Beach Scenes Oil on panel Charles Roussel Late 19th century Dim : 24 x 24 cm Dim avec cadre : 39,5 x 40,5 cm Charles Roussel (1861-1936) Charles was a student of Cabanel, Weerts and Tattégren at the Academy of Fine Arts in Lille. He lived and worked in Berck. He exhibited in Paris, at the Salons des Artistes Français, of which he was a member from 1887, and at the Tuileries. He also exhibited in Saint Petersburg in 1903, at the Universal Exhibition of Saint Louis in 1904 and then in Buenos Aires in 1909. He also worked with Gauguin in Pont-Aven. Roussel is now present in the museum collections of Nice and Tourcoing.

Dealer

SIGIS

Mobilier et Objets d'Art du XVIIIe et XIXe siècles

Mobile : +33628944078

Neuilly-sur-Seine 92200