Description

Passionate about the mountains, Charlotte Perriand devoted twenty years (1967-1989) to designing the Les Arcs ski resort, nestled in the French Alps. There, she imagined functional apartments, designed to optimize space and life at altitude. Among her iconic furniture choices are the famous Bruno Rey chairs, as well as these solid pine stools with their understated and practical design. With their inverted U-shaped silhouette, these stools are distinguished by their simplicity and robustness, perfectly suited to the mountain spirit of Les Arcs. Provenance: Les Arcs, circa 1970.
