Description

This strange and mysterious nude, with a scratched body, is an anonymous work from 1960-70, which places us here in post-1945 Japan: From the disaster, a new artistic trend appears: While some sculptors continue to create in an art deco or neo art deco style; many will produce disturbing works, attack, destroy classical figuration. - In painting there will be the Gutai style (Jiro Yoshihara.1905-72) search for a contemporary beauty revealed in the alterations caused by disasters) - Butoh (Tatsumi Hijikata 1928-1986) "dance of the dark body" is a break with traditional performing arts.) The sculptor Seibo Kitamura (1884-1987) creates a "skeletal, angry, ghostly" beauty according to the critics of his time. Traditional arts seem powerless to express new issues. Some artists seek to express
