Description

Vintage armchair model 45 designed by Alvar Aalto in 1947, produced in the 1970s by Artek in Finland. This armchair, a true icon of Scandinavian design, combines functional simplicity with the timeless elegance characteristic of Aalto. The natural bentwood frame of beech is enhanced by the armrests wrapped in patinated rattan, contrasting with the black linen straps that form the seat and backrest. The combination of these materials creates a feeling of lightness and comfort while emphasizing the purity of the aesthetic. Edition: Artek Finland, circa 1970
