Description

Genoese school of the end of the 17th century, workshop of Gregorio de FERRARI Study of an architectural motif from a low angle Pen and black ink, brown wash and white gouache highlights on black chalk sketch 26.5 x 19 cm - 36.8 x 29 cm Small stains and foxing Annotated "A. Watteau" Framed Provenance: - Former Eugène SUSINI collection, his stamp (L.3769) lower right. His sale in Paris, Hôtel Drouot, Libert et Castor CP, October 27, 1982, lot N° 7 as "French School of the 17th century" Very close to the architectural projects of Gregorio Da Ferrari, notably the one currently held at the Met Museum (INV. 55.628.8). Lyrical approach of the decor which here betrays the work of a painter rather than an architect. The annotation "A. Watteau" seems to be from the 18th century, but the
